

Symposium Virtue, AI and Law

March 14 & 15 - Amsterdam Law School

Programme 14 March - Room A3.01

9:00	Welcome & Walk-in
9:30-10:45	Session 1 Tania Sourdin 'Virtue Jurisprudence and the Use of Technology in the Justice Sector' Commentator: Thomasz Widlak
10:45-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:15	Session 2 David Opdeberck "Counterfactual Version" of Legal Justification by Virtue in Relation to Legal Decisions Made by Artificial Agents' Commentator: Silvia Corradi
12:15-13:45	Lunch
13:45-15:00	Session 3 Juliano Marnahao 'Honesty About the AI Systems in Law Courts' Commentator: Anastasia Siapka
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:15-16:30	Session 4 Janna van Grunsven 'Virtue-ethical Assessment of Which Context (In-person or Digital) Best Contributes to a Fair Process of Adjudication in Each Specific Case' Commentator: Amalia Amaya
16:30-16:45	Coffee break
16:45-18:00	Session 5 Sherman Clark 'High-Tech Touts: AI-Aided Marketing and the Virtues of Attention' Commentator: Edward Brooks

Symposium Virtue, AI and Law

March 14 & 15 - Amsterdam Law School

Programme 15 March - Room A7.23

9:00	Welcome & Walk-in
9:30-10:45	Session 6 Mihaela Constantinescu 'GenAI Avatars, Virtue, and Responsibility' Commentator: Natali Helberger
10:45-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-12:15	Session 7 Sylvie Delacroix 'Virtue Jurisprudence and its Relationship to Uncertainty: Human-machine Interaction Design Implications' Commentator: Anne Ruth Mackor
12:15-13:45	Lunch
13:45-15:00	Session 8 Julian Webb 'Constructing the Virtuous Lawyer: Is There a Role for AI?' Commentator: Iris van Domselaar
15:00-15:15	Coffee break
15:30-17:00	Closing event <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Theory Meets Practice @ Amsterdam Law Hub• Closing Drinks

